THE STEPHEN F. HUPKA DIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP

The Stephen F. Hupka Diversity Scholarship, established by Christ the King School in 2014, will provide financial aid to a Catholic student(s) of racial or ethnic minority who is a member of Christ the King Parish (Nashville), St. Vincent De Paul Parish (Nashville), or Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish (Nashville) and who applies as a new student enrolling at Christ the King School ("CKS"). CKS names this Scholarship to honor the exceptional generosity of Stephen F. Hupka, a long-time parishioner of Christ the King Catholic Church.

Scholarship Criteria

Applicants are evaluated on the following criteria:

- Class Availability
- Academic record and academic achievements
- Extracurricular and community activities
- Financial need
- The recommendation letters submitted in support of the applicant

Application Process

All applicants must submit completed applications to the CKS Office at the time of application to the school. Finalists for the Scholarship will be invited to meet with the principal during the admissions process. The recipients will be notified at the time of enrollment if scholarship requirements have been completed.
